RIO DE JANEIRO, JULY 18th, 1893.

THE situation at the south is undoubtedly critical in every respect, or the national government would not be continuing the extraordinary measures adopted on receipt of the news of Wandenkol's expedition against Rio Grande. The cable and telegraph lines south were closed on the 9th inst., and continue closed up to the present moment. No telegrams from the south have been delivered, no matter how innocent of war news they may have been. All code telegrams to other parts of the country, and all political news have also been forbidden. Rigorous measures have also been adopted to prevent the departure of vessels from this port without passes, and all steamers for Rio Grande ports have been stopped. One steamer was sent out, fully armed, with orders to go through to Montevideo, but at the last moment, even after the announcement of the capture of the Jupiter, this order was countermanded and the steamer goes no farther than Santa Catharina. On Saturday the Patz announced that the President had received advice of the flight of the Jupiter, on Sunday other telegrams were reported (not published) which partly contradicted the preceding advice as to the destination of that steamer, and on Monday other telegrams were reported (not published) announcing the capture of the Jupiter, with Wandenkol on board, near Santa Catharina. The telegraph lines remain closed, however, and there are many who doubt the news. It is to-day announced that the Aquidaban and Tiradentes are being hurriedly prepared to go south, which is in itself a confession that something is seriously the matter, of which we are not advised. If the siege of Rio Grande has been raised, the Jupiter captured and Wandenkol's expedition frustrated, why is it that communications remain closed and other naval vessels are being prepared for the south. It is whispered that something more serious is in the wind and that Uruguay is to be held responsible for assistance rendered to the federalists, but of this there is no certain information. The situation is aggravating and unsatisfactory to an extreme, and it is feared that other troubles are impending outside of Rio Grande. In Santa Catharina the state authorities are being deposed again by the nationalists (if we may call the President's friends by that name), a row is brewing in Paraná, an "armed peace" characterizes the situation in Pernambuco, and in this city the forces are held in readiness and the streets are full of ugly rumors. We are living practically in a state of siege, although martial law has not been declared. What the result is to be no one can say, but all know that only one course is open for a satisfactory settlement of the complications which beset us.

THE SITUATION AT SANTOS.

SANTOS, 7th June, 1893.

G. R. Kennedy, Esq., Agent for the Banco dos Lavadores and Companhia Mogyana, Santos.

You, as agent in Santos of the above firms, have done everything in your power to help us and facilitate discharge, and there, in conformity with our charter-parties, demurrage has been due, it has been paid regularly without question.

LEGISLATIVE NOTES.

JULY 11.—Senate.—The Senate voted in 2nd discussion the bill regulating the revision of military funds.—Chamber of Deputies.—Deputies. Officers continued to defend the budget committee's bill on currency. Alluding to the dividend declared by the Banco da Republica do Brazil, he said that the money for this dividend comes out of the Treasury. Deputy Alberto Brandão said he would vote both against the committee's bill and that of Deputy Glycerio. Deputy Jacques Chiquie offered a motion, signed by himself and others, to ask for information in regard to the war in Rio Grande do Sul. The government, he said, has not declined to give Congress any information in regard to that war beyond a laconic paragraph in the President's message. The government is deliberately carrying on that war without authorization and in doing so is violating the powers of Congress.

JULY 11.—Senate.—The sitting closed three-fourths of an hour before the regulation time because all but 13 senators had left. "In this way," said the president, "we are not doing our duty, or observing the rules of the house."—Chamber of Deputies.—Deputy Seabra moved to suspend the rules for the purpose of discussing the motion to ask for information in regard to the war in Rio Grande. This the Chamber by a vote of 15 to 57 refused to do. Deputy Serejo Victorino moved in favor of the budget committee's currency bill. Deputy Juscelino de Souza offered a motion, signed by himself and Deputy Demetrio Ribeiro, to ask why the government has suspended telegraphic communication. Deputy Glycerio opposed the motion, saying that he considered the government's action perfectly legitimate. This dispute opened a resolution for holding night sittings of the Chamber, to be opened with any number of deputies and to last three hours.

JULY 12.—Senate.—The Senate voted in 3rd discussion with amendments the bill for removing the Bahia navy-yard. It also voted to postpone the discussion of the bill for establishing a custom-house at Caravellos. In a speech on the subject, Senator Manoel Victorino said that the departments of the federal government known as much about Bahia as the Emperor had said in his message. The Senate voted to postpone until after the adoption or rejection of the proposed civil code the bill on perpetual ground lease. Senator Amaro Cavalcanti introduced a substitute bill on the reorganization of the postal service.—Chamber of Deputies.—The principal features of the sitting were two vehement speeches made by Deputies Jacques Chiquie and Eutacio. The former declared that as an ardent federalist, he really shared the fate of the revolutionists in Rio Grande, he denounced as a trick the report circulated in regard to the precarious situation of Admiral Wandenkol. He had observed, he said, that always on the eve of a vote on important bills there were circulated reports unfavorable to the federalists. Just before the vote on the proposal for impeachment it was reported that Gen. Torres had said about his arms. Now on the eve of the vote on the currency bill it is reported that Admiral Wandenkol is hemmed in between the Republique and the Canadá. It is known, he said, that part of the force stationed at Rio Grande had joined Wandenkol and that the vessels sent from Rio by the government had not entered the bay. A glance at the map will show, he added, that the Admiral with all his means supposed to be at his disposal can withstand any force that can be brought against him until the arrival of immigrating land forces. He warned his colleagues against believing the reports circulated by the government, whose weakness, he said, is demonstrated by the extraordinary precautions which it takes to prevent information from reaching the public. Deputy Eutacio said that the Rio Grande revolution, which, in official telegrams, has so often been annihilated, seems at last about to sweep from the soil of the state the despotism that polluted it. Tyranny, threatened in its den at Itamaraty, had climbed before the army and navy, appealing pitifully to their loyalty for assistance. Loyalty, he exclaimed, is a word not found in Marshal Floriano's dictionary. When he asked, had the President ever displayed loyalty? When he deposed Thomazinas from the government of Amazonas? When he instigated the bombardment of the official residence of Claudio in Ceará? When he illegally retired from the service officers of the army and navy? When he named the executors of the Republique and the Canadá? When he sent spies on the navy? The government asks for assistance to overcome the enemies of the republic. In the opinion of the government those who fight for liberty are enemies of the republic, while the government that has converted the constitution into a vile and repulsive rag, claims to be the republic's defender. Deputy Eutacio said that the members of the majority to subordinate their party prejudices to the general welfare and to aid in saving the republic. He moved to inquire whether the government had polluted the departure of the Marat and other steamers for the southern ports of Brazil; whether it had prevented the Onitina from sailing from Pelotas for this port; whether it has closed telegraphic communication between different parts of the country; if so, in virtue of what law had it done this; whether it was aware that the press had been insulted and threatened, and if so, what steps it had taken to guarantee the liberty of the press.

JULY 13.—Senate.—The committee on public works reported in favor of the substitute bill of the Chamber of Deputies for making a grant to F. Duncker for a railway from Rio de Janeiro to Entre Rios-da-Petropolis. Senator Muniz de Barros spoke on the Asiatic immigration bill, and gave a substitute. Senator Manoel Victorino and Luper spoke on the same subject, the former in favor of the original bill and the latter in favor of Asiatic immigration without accepting in totum either of the bills.—Chamber of Deputies.—There was a recess from the war department a communication stating that the department had received information in regard to the attack on the Café America in Porto Alegre. Deputy Alberto Brandão moved to inquire whether the loan for the Oeste de Minas railway had been actually obtained and whether the government has resources in London for paying interest on its foreign debt during the present year. It is reported, he said, that the attempt to obtain that loan had proved a partial if not total failure. Deputy Rosa e Silva complained of the delay of the government in sending to the budget committee the estimates for the appropriations. The army bill was read in 3rd discussion, the number of troops being fixed at 24,877. The amendments reducing the number of cadets at the military school, to 100, and transferring to Mattos Grosso the 60th military school were adopted. The Chamber rejected a motion of Deputy Brandão das Neves to postpone the vote on the currency bill. Deputy Glycerio's substitute bill was adopted in 2nd discussion by a vote of 80 to 60. The first paragraph of the substitute bill (that which approves all the acts of the executive for the execution of the decree of December 17th) was rejected. The 2nd paragraph (that relating to compensation to banks of issue) was carried by a vote of 10 to 47. The 3rd paragraph was rejected. There were adopted amendments on Deputy Rosa e Silva for retaining attached the gold deposits for guaranteeing the issue and for increasing those guarantees, when the financial situation improves, to a sum equal in 50% of the issue of the bank.

JULY 15.—Senate.—The Senate voted in 1st discussion the bill exempting from import duty merchandise imported by state and municipal governments. Senator Elyen Martins spoke in favor of the Asiatic immigration bill and Senator Joaquim Catella against that bill and the substitute. Senator Muniz de Barros defended the latter and moved to recommit.—Chamber of Deputies.—Deputy Alberto Brandão moved to inquire what quantity of gold now remains deposited in the national Treasury as security for the bank notes in circulation. Deputy Luma, a propos to a telegram from the governor of Santa Catharina in regard to the deposition of municipal chambers in that state with assistance of the federal government, suggested that the Chamber should answer that it deeply regretted such a state of affairs, but that it was powerless to offer a remedy. He would like to learn, he said, from some one able to inform him, whether the government under which he is living is that of a tolerant republic in an autonomy. He is a man who accommodates himself to circumstances, and if he is really a slave, he does not wish to pretend that he is a free man. But, if there are three independent branches of government, then some one in that house should have the courage to protest against this absorption of all power by one man, which negates the republic and annuls the will of the nation. Deputy Luiz Murat moved to inquire whether the government has prohibited the sending of hospital supplies for the wounded federalists in Rio Grande.

RIVER PLATE ITEMS.

—The American consulate in Buenos Aires gave a banquet at the Café Paris on the 4th inst. in honor of "the day we celebrate."

—The sale of a large number of mules for Brazil is reported in Argentina. Many of them have been purchased for military purposes.

—It is estimated that the wheat crop in the province of Santa Fé, Argentina, will be 25 per cent. larger this year than the crop of last year.

—The Ally Adams shows that there were 571 immigrant and passenger arrivals at Montevideo and 710 departures, not including River Plate ports.

—The exporters of flour and grain from Uruguay are asking the government of that country to secure from Brazil the same concessions that have been granted to the United States on the same products.

—On Friday the government issued no fewer than twelve letters of citizenship, one to an Argentine and the rest to Brazilians. This is peculiar, for sometimes as many letters are not issued in a whole year.—Montevideo Times, July 2nd.

—The super-bay editor of the Times of Argentina suggested the wearing of a white rose on the royal wedding day, which might be used to distinguish the "loyal from the nuptial" British subject. The inventor of this idea should have been placed on a collision with a wreath of white roses around his neck.

—Persons who cherish the idea that a low state of civilization exists in Uruguay will be likely to have their opinions changed when they examine the display made by this country (at Chicago). The first thing to engage their attention is the hand-made lace which is displayed in several large cases. The art of making it was brought from Spain, but has been greatly improved. There is in this department a fine display of fancy cakes, crackers, biscuits and a collection of many other articles to be seen in Paris. The largest display of staming materials, anomalous, elegant and mechanical plants in the entire Exposition is made by Uruguay. It shows over 300 medicinal plants, many of them not known in this country, and 100 kinds of bark employed in tanning. It also shows the tanning material extracted from the bark of the quinchao tree and the leather that is produced by its use. The industry exhibited in this department attracts much attention and is pronounced by some to be equal to any raised in China. Several different commercial varieties are exhibited, all of which are strong and supple. The country exports annually tobacco valued at $6,500,000, but none of it appears to find its way to this country. It also exports Paraguayan tea, worth $10,000,000, most of which is consumed in South America. In the forestry building Paraguay has 600 varieties of wood.—N. Y. Journal of Commerce, June 13th.

—The decree was published yesterday raising the quarantine on all Brazilian ports except Rio Janeiro and Santos, the former of which is still declared "suspected" and the latter "unaffected." Unfortunately it is just the quarantine on Rio Janeiro that is most objectionable to commerce and correspondence. —Montevideo Times, July 5th.

—The Buenos Aires Standard of July 4th was scandalized because in Montevideo "the only notice in the papers" (English) in reference to the Duke of York's wedding day is one to the effect that the meeting of the British Consulate will be held that day, and at the British Legation hall! The Standard evidently considered that all grave matters should be postponed to another day.

—An important proposal has been presented to the Argentine government for what will be practically a new port at Buenos Aires. The scheme comprises a deep channel along the city front from Las Palmas to a point below the Riachuelo, and the construction of an island in front of the city 400 metres wide and 10,000 metres long. The contractor undertakes to do the work without guarantee or subsidy, and will give the government the use of the reclaimed lands. The scheme is considered a good one by competent authorities.

—The senators had a decidedly lurid interval on Monday, when they debated the proposal, absurd at any time and criminal in the present situation, to give person to a lot of 15 and of recommendations quite unknown to the public, to "pursue marine studies in Europe." It is certainly true that our legislators found out that money extorted from the people by excessive taxation is not to be wasted in this manner. If the youth in question is anxious to continue his marine studies in Europe, let him do so at the expense of his friends and not of the state. —Montevideo Times, July 5th.

PROVINCIAL NOTES

—Rice is selling at Uruclua for 60$ per bag of 80 litres.

—The state legislature of Amazonas was formally opened on the 10th inst.

—Telegrams from São Paulo on the 12th stated that the conflicts between students and the police had at last terminated. The governor promised to have all offenders punished.

—In Paraná it is said that the government is organizing "patriotic battalions" for the purpose of overcoming the opposition in various localities. In Curitiba it is charged that 50 Spaniards have been lately added to the police force.

—On the 14th the governor of São Paulo pardoned three murderers and all deserters of the state police who return to their posts in 60 days. The criminals are apparently the only ones who find cause for rejoicing in these independence days.

—The military officer who tried to turn out the governor of Amazonas toward the end of last year, Lt. Col. Geographo, has not only been released from arrest but has been restored to his command, by order of the minister of war. In good time, service medals will probably be issued for the deposition of governors.

—The Diaria Popular, of S. Paulo, of the 15th, contains a Pecksniffian lament from Aristides Lobo on the moral decadence of the women who have been raising funds for the relief of wounded federalists in Rio Grande. What an infinity of immorality and hopeless sadness this world must contain from Aristides' point of view!

—The Gazeta, a journal of Uberaba, says that Gov. Francisco Xavier da Silva, of Paraná, has been stopping improvisamente for more than 20 days at the Hotel do Commercio in that town, where he is known as F. X. de Sá. Perhaps he is afraid that if he passes under his real name, Florianópolis may catch him and dispose him.

—Telegrams from De-terra on the 11th state that arms and munitions had been delivered by the 25th battalion to the chiefs of the opposition, Paula Ramos and Herculio Lutz, to be conveyed to Blumenau. It is asserted that the intention is to depose the state government. The latter, however, says it will die in the trench before yielding. It is beginning to look like trouble in Santa Catharina.

—The São Paulo papers of the 12th published a telegram from Col. Valladares, the President's secretary, dated the 11th, giving the official version of the attack on Rio Grande. It says that Wandenkolff had captured some small vessels used in the barra service, that he had not yet approached the city of Rio Grande, that his proclamation had been unfavourably received, and that Rio Grande is well defended by infantry and mobile artillery.

—It seems to us that the following curious account of a disturbance in Santa Catharina related by one of the actors, Col. Serra Marinha, commander of the federal troops in that state, in a telegram of the 13th addressed to the Santa Catharina congressmen in Rio, is worthy of being placed on record. —After having visited the fort during the day, I was finishing my telegram to Marshal Floriano and the minister of war in relation thereto, when a band of music passed these headquarters, preceded by a crowd making a great noise, uttering seditions shouts, haranguing for the federalist party and the Rio Grande revolutionists and crying death to the President of the republic, to me and to the republican party. Stepping to a window, as there was an answering cry of 'death to the President,' my arteries dispersed the mol, order being immediately restored. On descending to the street door I met Elyseu Guillerme, 1st vice-president, who thus showed that he had been with the mol, and I informed him that I held him responsible for this grave attack to the Marshal. In his presence I ordered the dispersal of the crowd that had again assembled around him and, after his hearing my order, I invited him to step up to my office and showed him this telegram which I immediately dictated and sent to the Marshal. I only desire peace and order among the people of Santa Catharina. —Serra Marinha, Colonel commanding the district.

—It looks very much as if Col. Serra Marinha had resolved to take complete possession of the state of Santa Catharina. He certainly considers that the executive of that state is under his orders, and that it is his duty and privilege to govern independently of the civil authorities. It is needless to say that there can never be peace and civil government as long as such officers as Serra Marinha are kept in positions of trust and responsibility. For his conduct on the 13th he should be promptly court-martialed.

—Telegrams from Santa Catharina on the 14th and 15th announce the deposition of the municipal councils of Tijucas, Blumenau, Taboão, and other places. In some places the arms recently furnished by the national government were used. Many of the telegrams were signed by men with military titles. In all cases, the telegrams of the revolutionists denounce the state government as "federalist" and in sympathy with the Rio Grande revolutionists. The situation is critical, as it is not certain whether the state authorities will yield without a struggle. Free telegraphic communication was suspended.

RAILROAD NOTES

—There was a bad accident on the Central line yesterday morning, caused by a suburban train running into a freight train. No lives lost.

—The minister of industry has requested the Treasury to place the sum of $6,796 17s. 6d. at the disposition of the purchasing agent in the United States for the acquisition of material for the Bahia railway.

—Ten metre-gauge locomotives for the São Paulo branch of the Central railway, were discharged on the 14th inst. at the Gamboa station. They are all from the celebrated Baldwin Locomotive Works.

—The minister of industry has ordered the payment of $24,002$931 to the Oeste de Minas company, which sum is the balance of the expenses incurred and allowed on the line between Bara Mansa and Catalão.

—The relatório of the minister of industry gives the following returns of the Paraná railway:

	1891	1892
Receipts	981,340$816	1,332,100$937
Expenditures	533,640 958	917,877 949

—After having definitely and satisfactorily settled the questions of an extension of time and of an enlargement of its facilities, the São Paulo Railway Co. now finds itself balked by the President himself, who, we are informed, advises the company that no concessions whatever will be granted unless it agrees to buy the Paulista lines for nine millions sterling. This step is so arbitrary, illegal and immoral that we can not believe that any executive could be guilty of it—and yet, the negotiation is off. Mr. Fox has gone home, and this is the reason given.

COFFEE NOTES

—The people of the United States in 1892 consumed, per capita, 6.54 pounds of coffee, and 1.37 pounds of tea. Coffee is imported there in many ways, besides being adulterated, and when the price of coffee is high the substitutes are largely purchased by poor people.

—A Santos telegram of the 15th says that the receipts of coffee during the week had been 26,000 bags, and the sales 30,000 bags. The stock on that date was 116,000 bags.

—According to the Jornal do Brazil a prominent member of the bench rendered a decision a few days since to the effect that the Banco da República has no juridical existence, nor can have until Congress approves the decree of December 17th last. In view of the large and important transactions effected by this bank, this decision can not fail to excite serious apprehensions. It ought, also, to arouse Congress to the necessity of prohibiting such executive acts, which may involve heavy losses where Congress fails to concur.

HOSPITAL NOTES.

—It gives us much pleasure to announce the gift of a fine American harmonium to the "Strangers' Hospital by Mrs. C. Guilhem, of this city. The instrument will be placed in the sitting-room of the nurses' chapel as soon as it is ready for occupancy, and will, we feel sure, be heartily appreciated by them.

—The Secretary wishes to call attention again to the desirability of having all annual subscriptions paid before the annual meeting, which is called for the 28th, because these constitute the qualification for active membership of the association. As he may not be able to call on every one, intending subscribers should send in their names without delay.

ANNUAL MEETING.

The regular annual meeting of the subscribers to the "Strangers' Hospital Association" will be held at the offices of Messrs. Phillips, Bros. & Co., No. 16 Rua Visconde de Inhamã, at 1.30 p. m., on Friday July 28th, for the receipt and approval of the annual reports, the election of four directors to succeed Messrs. Cross, Gatto, Mackenzie and Taylor, whose terms have expired, and for such other business as may be brought before it.

By order,

A. J. LAMOURFEX,

Hon. Secretary.

LOCAL NOTES

—The Republica left for the south at half-past three on the morning of the 11th.

—The two chambers of Congress have voted the bill authorizing the removal of the naval arsenal from Bahia.

—The coasting steamer Mayrink left for Santa Catharina, via Paranaíba, on the 11th with ammunition and supplies.

—There was a personal encounter in the Chamber of Deputies on the 11th inst. between Deputy Espinosa Santo and an editor of the Tempo.

—The coasting steamer Santos left, by order of the government, on the 17th for Santa Catharina, carrying passengers and military supplies. She carries an armed force for defence in case of attack.

—On the 11th the state telegraph lines refused to send a press telegram to Pernambuco announcing the suspension of telegraphic communication. Aristides ought to be rejoicing mightily at this spectacle of lurid freedom!

—The British minister called on the minister of foreign affairs on the 12th and had a long conference with him. The Jornal intimates that the embargo imposed on telegraphic communication was the subject of conversation.

—It is reported that the Jupiter was not seized by Wandenkolff, but had been bought, armed and manned for the purpose in view. The sum paid is said to have been $35,000, and it is also said that she carried 700 men, instead of 100 as at first reported.

—A small mob paraded Rua do Ovidor on the night of the 11th inst., shouting "Long live Marshal Floriano!" and "Death to the Federalists!" It scared the timid shopkeepers, of course; but the revolution in Rio Grande was hardly enough to go right on.

—The minister of industry has removed Dr. Alexander Haug from the post of district chief-engineer in the state telegraph department. The aforesaid official disappeared a short time since, and it now appears that he left for Europe under an assumed name.

—The Jornal do Commercio of the 12th says that one of the last telegrams received from Rio Grande, dispatched at 6 p. m. on the 9th and received here on the 10th, was as follows:—"Wandenkolff on board has captured eight more vessels which are all armed. Our port blockaded."

—It is a curious fact that while the newspapers in this city were publishing no telegraphic news whatever from Rio Grande last week, the provincial papers were publishing telegrams from Col. Gallardo, the President's private secretary, on the course of events in that state. Comment is unnecessary.

—According to the Jornal the steamers inside the Rio Grande bar when Wandenkolff took possession were the Rio Paria, Aymoré and Mercedes of the Lloyd Brasileiro, and the Itapua and Itanemi of the Nacional Costeira. It is also believed that the Itapua of the Grigoroff Co. had likewise been captured.

—The minister of foreign affairs has revived the phrase "Sande e Fraternidade" for closing official communications and has prohibited the use of titles of nobility among the employes of his department. It is a sign that he is still yunque and emotional, and an enthusiastic disciple of the Desmoulins school of republicanism.

—Not content with arbitrarily closing all telegraphic communication with the south, the government also closed the port has back to the free movement of merchant vessels, all decrees being prohibited without the pass from the captain of the port. It looks as though the government had fears about some of the vessels in this port—and perhaps some which can hardly be described as merchantmen.

—It was said on the 12th that Wandenkolff had moved all the channel buoys at the Rio Grande bar, that the gunboats had gone over to his side, that he had taken several merchant steamers found there which he had manned and armed, and that with these he had bombarded the fortifications of Rio Grande. As the government has prohibited the delivery of any telegrams from the south, it was impossible to determine how far these rumors were true.

—The weak point in Admiral Wandenkolff's attack on Rio Grande was his confidence in receiving support from his lieutenants. No one supports anything in Brazil until its success is certain, and then everybody wants the credit for it.

—The Jornal says that on Friday telegrams were even refused for Petropolis "by superior orders." These suppressions are really what the Brazilian people deserve, for in the long run a people get no more than they have the spirit and intelligence to win.

—The President has appointed Rear-Admiral Joaquim Antonio Cordeiro Mauity as chief of the Brazilian commission at the Chicago Exposition. The recent contraband in the commission will enable us to send more friends and protégés over there, all expenses paid, to see the "great show."

—Instead of a costly reorganization of the postal service, would it not be well to adopt a few inexpensive measures for better service, the postal in the postoffices? If the employes could be made to wait less time and attend more carefully to their duties, there would certainly be vast improvement.

—The governor of Amazonas sends from Pará a telegram dated Manaus, July 10th, to the effect that the revenue of that state for the half year ending June 30th amounted to 4,403,500$, and that the state treasury has a balance on hand of 4,000,000$. He says the financial condition of Amazonas is flourishing.

—What confidence can the people place in a government which suppresses all telegraphic information, both to private parties and the press, and then sends out telegrams purporting to explain the situation? Men are largely fools, of course—but how many of them will accept these official versions of the news?

—On the 11th the body of a man was found in the bay near the Caes Pharoos, which was afterwards identified as Robert Grover, mate and acting commander of the British Zealandia. A suspicion of foul play led to the arrest of the laborers on board, but for a time all efforts to discover the crime were in vain. On the 15th, however, one of these men, a Spaniard named Ramon Rarden, confessed that Grover had been thrown overboard by Julien Garcia and himself, because he had insulted them. Garcia denies the story, but the authorities think the two men will be found guilty of the crime.

—Among the arrivals from Europe yesterday was Dr. Ferreira de Araujo, for many years editor-in-chief of the Gazeta de Notícias. In the days of the monarchy he was a staunch and eloquent advocate of free speech, free press and popular rights, and many a cabinet has felt his fearless denunciation of its arbitrary purposes. He has now been absent from Brazil two years, and is therefore well outside of the complications which beset us. What his converse is to be for the future we do not know, but we trust it will not be inconsistent with the record he has already made.

—By virtue of the absence of Sr. Ladislao Netto, the staff of the Museu Nacional has been enabled to expedite the work of arranging the material of that institution in such a manner as to permit its opening on the 14th inst. As our readers are aware the collections were some time ago removed from the old building facing the Jardim d'Acclimação to the Boa Vista palace, in S. Christovam. The new museum promises to be a great improvement on the old one, providing everything can be arranged before Sr. Ladislao's return. There is much new material of a valuable character, and the building is a great improvement on the old museum.

—The lecture of Bishop John P. Newman on the 13th, at the Methodist church, was one of exceptional interest and entertainment. It was a vivid description of the great valley of the Euphrates, the ruined cities of Babylon and Nineveh, the results of archeological research in those places, and of many personal incidents connected with a thousand miles' ride through that historical region. Bishop Newman is considered to be one of the most finished speakers of the day, and it is to be regretted that so few of our colony improved the opportunity to hear him. Indifference in such matters reflects but little credit upon our intelligence, and when only 80 people are found in a city like Rio de Janeiro to listen to such a lecture we must conclude that its indifference is simply monumental.

—The Pais of Saturday announced that the President and minister of marine had received telegrams from Rio Grande to the effect that Admiral Wandenkolff had raised the siege of that city and had fled in the Jupiter, leaving forty odd men behind, who were captured. The telegrams state that this abandonment of the attempt to capture the city is said to have been due to the preparations for resistance made by the gunboat Canadá, which with some armed merchant steamers went out to the barra to meet the Jupiter. Lacking the means of resistance the Jupiter went to sea. It is also said that the Republica has gone in pursuit, with orders to sink the Jupiter wherever found. In the meantime, however, the telegraph lines are closed, and we are asked to believe the news graciously vouchsafed only by a dictatorial government.

—The Pais of Saturday, which plumes itself on being the organ of the government, says that orders have been sent to detain the Uruclua and Mercurio at Montevideo and Buenos Aires. These steamers belong to the Companhia Grigoroff, which is to be called upon to explain why the Jupiter came to be in the possession of the rebels. The Pais is also good enough to inform us that Gen. Telles has arrived at Rio Grande with his forces, that the Republica has arrived at the bar and thence went south in pursuit of the Jupiter, that the government has ordered the fortification of the Rio Grande bar, with Krupp guns, and that the merchant Bahia has been ordered to Montevideo. On Sunday, however, the Pais mentions other "government telegrams" which place the Republica north of the bar, and a strange steamer, supposed to be the Jupiter, south of the bar. It also states that two steamers, the Itapuan and Rio Grande, had entered that port. The Pais fails to tell us, however, why the government continues to keep the telegraph and cable lines closed to the public.

this point at once. As the government proposes to treat the case as "piracy," death will logically be the sentence for those captured, but it is doubtful whether the President will dare to go this far. The treaty is the relic of a colonial Vandalism.
 There are no pirates in the Gulf of Guadalupe.
 nor can there be until the embargo on telegraphic communication with the south is raised. This rigid embargo has existed since the gth inst., to the great inconvenience and prejudice of commerce.
 It is announced this morning that the Aguila and Tiradentes are to be sent south, but no one knows why. Affairs in Santa Catharina have become critical and no telegrams are allowed to leave the island. Telegrams were even stopped year ago. Petropolis is simply a not only suffering from cheese. The situation is not only critical, but is becoming intolerable.

H. L. WHEATLEY,
Hon. Sec.

—The Jupiter is said to have had a large cargo of Indian corn for this port. The closing of the Rio Grande bar on the 8th sent the prices of flour, beans, lard, etc., up with a run.

government would have found itself in some difficulty had not Messrs. Rothschild and Sons come to the aid of the Government. The Mines and Wagonway Railway 5 per cent. loan for £3,710,000. Also, this princely merchant banking firm has somehow figured its reputation by bringing this opportunity before the public, and the true facts respecting the issue of this loan may never see daylight. Thus Messrs. Rothschild and Sons have received a strong rebuff from the public, and their credit is somewhat impaired. They cannot be blamed. They applied to this committee for a settlement and payment for the loan in question, but a settlement for only £2,650,000 stock was effected, whilst the latter has not yet been granted.—Transport, London, June 9th.

NECTANDRA AMARA

Marvellous discovery in the Brazilian Vegetation

The application of a medicinal substance s-jely by itself, presents before the modern therapeutics all the advantages which can be expected with relief to the sick as well as to its own quality as a medicinal agent; and the once famous polypharmacy has finally been substituted by the application of simple remedies.

The advantage of it is doubtless with the sick, because given solely, one knows easily what to refer to, and the improvements or to new symptoms, which perhaps may appear.

It is well to be difficult, however, to find out the agent which will fill in a complete and perfect way the conditions presented; the more we, therefore, simplify the therapeutics, the more probabilities we shall have of a good success.

We have all reasons to refer the attention to the present case, because the question is of a simple remedy, that is, one which contains only the structure of which is composed NECTANDRA AMARA.

The following analysis was expressly made by my colleague and friend Dr. Gustavo Peckoli for the International Far-mulary; he was assisted in this work by his worthy father the glory of the pharmaceutical class of Brazil:

"NECTANDRA AMARA" is used safely and with efficacy in cases of acute dyspepsia, diarrhoea and dysentery, be it acute or chronic, leucorrhoea, etc., etc.; and furthermore all preparations of the Chemist Antero Leivas are recommended by different well known physicians, so that there can not be any doubts about their effects. (From the Formulario Internacional of Dr. Feres de Almeida, an eminent Brazilian physician.)

Sea Sickness.

Every traveller should be provided in his sea voyages with a bottle of NECTANDRA AMARA, to use against the terrible sufferings of this sickness, as soon as it appears.
A teaspoonful (5 grammes) of this mixture, in a table-spoonful of pure water, taken every two hours, will promptly and with efficacy relieve him against this evil and it is well to know that he, who is provided with this mixture, possesses a powerful remedy to cure any kind of stomach diseases or diarrhoeas of the bowels.

The inventor of NECTANDRA AMARA of Antero Leivas is sold at all chemists in Brazil.

The depot of the manufacturer is in Rio de Janeiro at
No. 72 Rua de S. Pedro.

NECTANDRA AMARA PILLS.

For all diseases of the stomach and disorders of the bowels there is no more powerful medicine than these health giving pills which for $300 per box or 12000 for 6 boxes, and 20000 for boxes, go speedily in a registered packet by post to help the sick in any part of Brazil, or abroad, from wherever they may be relieved. Address Joaquim Buato de Miranda, rua de S. Pedro No. 70, Rio de Janeiro.
